How is heritage recognised, and how do travellers experience it

START

1) Listed heritage places

01 Heritage Dot Map

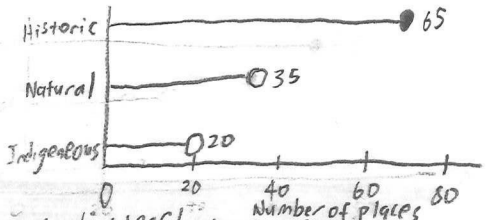

120 listed places

• 1 dot = 1 place

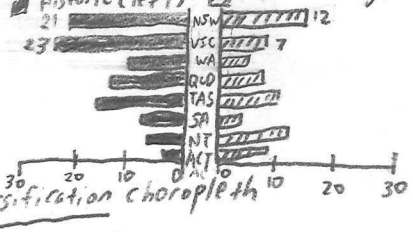

02 Classification lollipop

Historic: over half

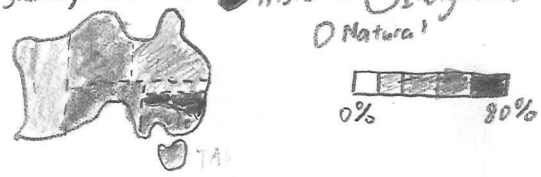

03 State butterfly comparison

Same total, different mix

04 Classification choropleth

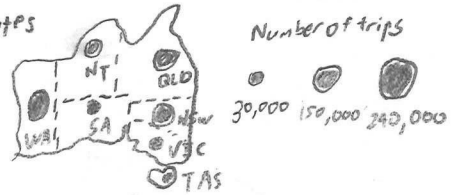

Compare shares, not totals

2. First Nations participation

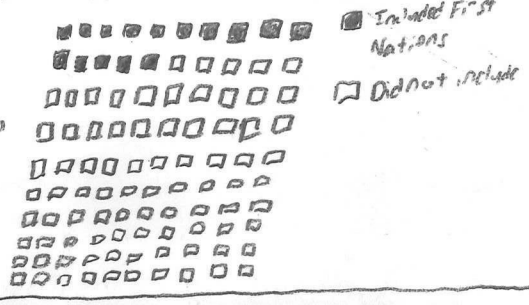

05 Proportional symbol map

Trips span several states

06 International participation waffle

About 15% included a First Nation

3) Activities and change

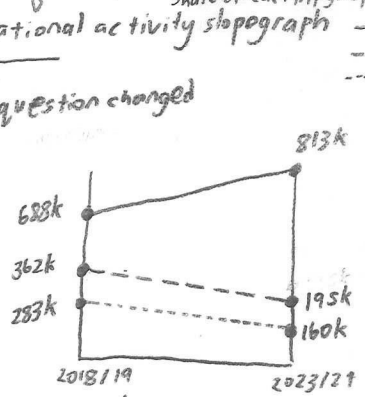

07 Connected-dot comparison

Different groups, not time

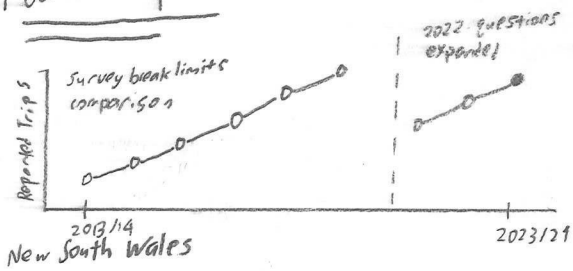

08 International activity slopegraph

Survey question changed

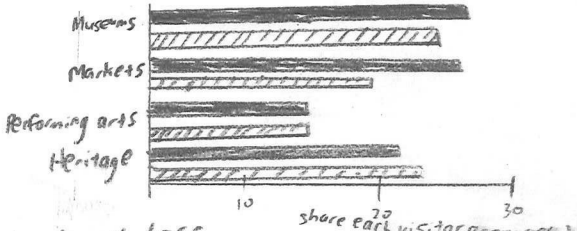

09 Domestic trip timeline

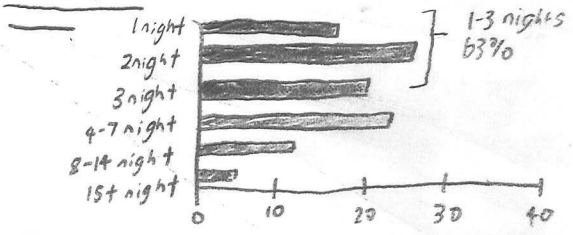

4) New South Wales

10 Activity grouped bars

Equal shares, different totals

11 Stay-length bars

12 Quarterly grouped columns

Overnight year-end lift

Conclusion: recognition and tourism show difference perspective
